

WHO WE ARE

THE PRESERVING BLACK HADDONFIELD HISTORY PROJECT is a Sub-Committee of Haddonfield Alumni Society under the leadership of President Joseph Serico, EdD. Spearheaded by Haddonfield Memorial High School alumni and Haddonfield Alumni Society members, as well as current and past residents and their descendants, educators, and like-minded leaders of local institutions, everyone involved shares a commitment to doing his/her part to strengthen Haddonfield's reputation for being a unique community with a rich history.

CO-FOUNDERS

Rebecca Hilgen Bryan, DNP, APN
Gregory McMillan, DTh
Lisa Lacroce Patterson
C. Adrienne Rhodes*
Joseph Serico, EdD
Malcolm Talton
Christopher Wolfe

**NOTE: General Project Administration*

SPECIAL ADVISERS

Commissioner Alfred Dansbury, Sr.

Amy Lackpour

Rev. Anthony C. Talton
Mt. Olivet Baptist Church

HONORARY COMMITTEE

Stacey Brown-Downham
Deborah Garwood, PhD, MSLIS, MFA
David Platt, PhD, MLIS
Douglas R. Rauschenberger
Jennifer Norwood Sheran
Linda Shockley
Sarah Tambussi

Our work is made possible through individual donations and contributions from:

SPONSORS

Haddonfield Foundation
Independence Public Media Foundation
Founding Sponsor
Haddonfield Education Association
Legacy Sponsor
Haddonfield Antiracist Coalition

Media Sponsors
The (Haddonfield) Sun Newspapers
WHYY

Our work benefits from the support of:

STRATEGIC PARTNERS
Haddonfield Educational Trust
Haddonfield Memorial High School
Haddonfield Plays and Players
Haddonfield Public Library
Historical Society(ies) of Haddonfield and Lawnside.....AND OTHERS

Celebrating our commonalities and building a more harmonious community.